29. (1) Subject to an application being submitted to the Board, the Board may pay compensation under this Act to—

(a) the victim;
(b) a dependant of the deceased victim; or
(c) the person responsible for the care and maintenance of the victim or dependant, where that person has suffered pecuniary loss or has incurred expense in the care of the injured victim or dependant, as the case may be.

30. (1) Compensation may be paid whether or not a person is prosecuted or convicted of the crime on account of which the application was made.
(2) The Board may suspend consideration of any application for such period as it thinks appropriate on the ground that the prosecution for the crime, out of which the injury occurred, has commenced or is imminent.

31. Notwithstanding the incapacity of the person responsible for the injury or death by reason of age, insanity, or otherwise, compensation may be payable under this Act.

32. No compensation shall be paid unless the application is made within one year after the date of the injury or death or after that date, upon determination by the Board, that good cause exists for the delayed application.

33. No compensation shall be paid where the victim—
   (a) was guilty of a contravention of, or failed to comply with, any law which caused or contributed to his injuries;
   (b) was injured as a result of the operation of a motor vehicle, boat or airplane unless the same was used as a weapon in a deliberate attempt to do the victim harm or to cause bodily injury.

   (3) The Minister may, by Order, increase the amount payable generally up to a maximum of fifty thousand dollars.
Subject to the provisions of this Act, as to the payment of compensation to dependants, no compensation is payable for the benefit of the estate of a deceased victim.

35. Compensation shall be paid in lump sum, except that in the case of death or protracted disability compensation may provide for periodic payments to compensate for loss of earnings or support.

36. Where a victim or dependant to whom compensation is paid subsequently receives a settlement by way of damages or an award, he shall repay to the Board an amount equal to the compensation paid to him by the Board.

37. A victim or dependant who—

38. Where the victim or a dependant fails to comply with the requirements of section 36, the Court may in its discretion, having regard to all the circumstances of the victim or dependant, decide whether or not the amount of compensation paid to such victim or dependant shall be refunded to the Board.

39. (1) The Board is subrogated to all the rights of the person to whom payment is made under this Act to recover damages by civil proceedings in respect of the injury or death and may maintain an action in the name of such person against whom action lies.
(2) Where the Board pursues an action under subsection (1), any amount recovered shall be applied—
   (a) first to the payment of costs actually incurred in the action;
   (b) second, to the reimbursement to the Board of the value of the compensation awarded; and
